

3:2:1 Weekly Exit Slips

At the end of every other week you must complete your “Bi-weekly Exit Slip.” This slip is a 4x6 index card which will be placed in alphabetical order by your last name in the box on my desk. At the beginning of each exit slip week I will post on the site what I would like you to communicate on the card. Your “Bi-Weekly Exit Slips” will count toward your class participation portion of your grade.

- Exit Slip #6, Turned in by Friday, December 4th
 - 3: What are three things you have done in this class which you have never done before?
 - 2: Provide two aspects which you like about this class?
 - 1: In what way did you contribute to class this week?
- Exit Slip #5, Turned in by Friday, November 18th
 - 3: What are three ways which you teach this class to make it more fun/ interactive? (example: more videos, more presentations, more partner work...)
 - 2: What are two ways you could use what you learn in this class in another class?
 - 1: In what way did you contribute to class this week?
- Exit Slip #4, Turned in by Thursday, October 28th
 - 3: Use three words to describe this class.
 - 2: What are two things you did in class this week which made you feel accomplished. (example: finished magazine cover, increased my knowledge of design principles, understand photography better.)
 - 1: If you did not have any limitations what would be your ideal appropriate halloween costume
- Exit Slip #3, Turned in by Friday, October 7th
 - 3: Provide 3 keywords which you learned/used in class during the Photoshop unit. (example: lasso, layers, podcast, contrast, proximity...)

2: Name your two favorite activities from the Photoshop unit

1: In what way did you contribute to the class this week?

- Exit Slip #2, Turned in by Thursday, September 22nd
 - 3: Provide three words to describe how you work on computers (example: confident, comfortable, nervous, lost...)
 - 2: Name two skills you think are the most essential skills to know to be successful when working on computers in school and in a future job?
 - 1: Name one thing you did over the weekend or plan on doing this weekend.
(besides sleeping!)

- Exit Slip #1, Turned in by Thursday, September 8th
 - 3: What are three things you are looking forward to doing in this class?
 - 2: What are two concerns you had coming into this class?
 - 1: In what way did you contribute to the class this week?